PURPOSE

SEO + Conversion

The Big Idea

The keyword data shows where people are already searching — Hunza, Skardu, Fairy Meadows, the great mountain treks. Auriga's content captures that traffic and converts it through a premium lens. Every piece positions Auriga as the agency that knows these places better than anyone.

*Rank for "Hunza trip" — sell "your private Hunza experience."
People search generic terms. Auriga's content answers those searches with luxury framing, then converts via the enquiry form.*

Blog post ranks on Google

Targets high-volume, low-KD keywords

Reader lands on premium editorial content

Auriga voice, real photos, specific details

WhatsApp CTA or Enquiry Form

Every post ends with one clear action

Bespoke trip booked

Consultation → custom itinerary → booking

Destination Landing Pages

These target the highest-volume searches. Written as editorial guides — confident, first-person, specific. Not listicles.

Editorial Brand Content

These don't rank for search volume — they convert visitors into clients. Written once, shared repeatedly on Instagram and WhatsApp. These are the posts that make someone say "this is who I want to book with."

POST TITLE	PURPOSE

Start Here

Five posts with near-zero competition. Publish these first — they rank quickly and prove the strategy.

01 Passu Cones: The Most Photographed View in Pakistan — KD ~5

Iconic, viral location. Nobody has a proper dedicated guide. Zero competition despite massive Instagram presence.

02 Hunza in Cherry Blossom Season — KD ~2

Massive April traffic spike every year. Pinterest and Instagram magnet. Almost no dedicated content exists.

03 Stargazing in Gilgit-Baltistan — KD ~1

Growing global niche. GB has some of the darkest skies in South Asia. Literally zero local coverage.

04 Tours from Islamabad — KD 2

The easiest ranking win identified in the entire 862-keyword dataset. Low competition, clear buyer intent.

05 Ghizer Valley Guide — KD 25 (but Auriga is based there)

Local credibility beats domain authority here. Auriga's firsthand knowledge of Ghizer is a competitive moat.

90-Day Calendar

One post per week. Priority 1 posts first to build destination authority, then quick wins, then brand content.

— VOICE & FORMAT

How Every Post Should Read

Tone: confident, editorial, first-person. Write as someone who has been there, not someone who read about it.

✓ Specific details. Names of actual stays, real experiences, exact viewpoints. Vague claims destroy trust.

✓ One CTA per post. WhatsApp or enquiry form — not both, not buried. End every piece with it.

✓ Client pull quotes. One real quote per destination post. Proof beats persuasion.

No generic listicles. "Top 10 things to do in Hunza" — this is what every competitor writes. Don't compete there.

No filler. Every paragraph should earn its place. If it doesn't inform or persuade, cut it.
